The Case Corporation was a manufacturer of construction and agricultural machinery. Jerome I. Case founded as JI Case Threshing Machine Company, operated it under that name for most of a century. For another 66 years, there was the JI Case Company, and was often simply a case. In the late 19th century case was one of the largest builders of steam engines in America, producing self-propelled portable engines, propulsion engines and steam tractors. It was a major producer of threshers and other harvesters. In the 20th century, was for many years the case of the 10 largest builders tractor. In the 1950s, his equipment line was its focus, with farm second.
